

Brian K. Howell, Sr. M.B.A.

Brian K. Howell, Sr., M.B.A. is a Registered Mortgage Loan Officer. As such he has excelled in assisting families with securing homes and gaining financial stability through Real Estate.

As a Graduate of Southern University (B.A.) and American International University where he gained his M.B.A., Brian's outlook on his professional life changed and he moved from working in PKI and Biometric Encryption (IT) to Real Estate after recognizing the potential of the Real Estate market. A problem solver, Brian uses his Real Estate expertise to assist those with Real Estate problems. Beginning with Residential services only, Brian has since then expanded his offerings to Commercial and Investment properties further assisting his clientele with their Real Estate problems.

His business philosophy is to combine old fashion face-to-face customer service with the high-tech touch of information technology to speed interactions when needed. This enables him to provide his clients with the best of personal service, and the fastest and most accurate financing options, news and trends available.

Originally from New Orleans, La, Brian has excelled in Monterey, Ca, Brooklyn, NY, Cliffwood Beach, NJ, and now the Metropolitan Houston, Tx area. He draws upon the work ethic learned from his service in the United State Army to assist him with his commitment to his customers.
